Search Research Report

Before you start searching, you are advised to get familiarized with the report search options (refer to screen display). Once you have understood the function of these options, you may decide to choose any combination of these options to build your search.

These are descriptions of report search options:

1. By Stock – You may enter the stock code, stock short name or stock name in the By Stock text box. If you do not enter anything in the text box, all stock will be displayed in the search results. To assist your search, click on List Of Participating Companies hyperlink to view the list of 100 public listed companies participating in CBRS.

2. Date Range – The range of dates of research houses publish research reports. By default, the system displays up to 30 newest research reports. Alternatively, you may pick an appropriate date range from Date Range drop-down menus. Please ensure the latter date is greater than the former.

3. Research Type – The types of research reports:
  - IR – Initiation Report - Generally, the report covers the following areas:
    - Background of listed company;
    - Discussion of risk factors surrounding the company ;
    - Analysis of the listed company against selected listed comparables; and
    - Valuation and Recommendation
 A research house will post one Initiation of Coverage Report within 5 months of allocation (applicable only to the first year of coverage).

  - RR - Results Report (Quarterly) - Results Report for each quarter in a year. Generally, the report covers the following areas:
    - Analysis of results performance and the analyst's opinion on the outlook for the company; and
    - Valuation and Recommendation

  - UR – Update Reports - An update report on a company could be triggered by a range of events, thus the contents tend to vary depending on the situation as well, at the discretion of the research firm. At least two Update Reports to be issued at any time within the year.

  - Others is applicable for research report types other than the above 3.

In this category, if you want to limit your search results to a specific research type, you may click on any of the above research types.

  - Select All option means to select the entire research types; this is the default value of research type option.

4. Recommendation – The recommendation made by the research house whether to

Search Research Report

- buy,
- hold, or
- sell the shares of the company.

In this category, if you want to limit your search results to a specific recommendation, you may click on any of the above recommendations.

Select All option means to select all 3 recommendations; this is the default value of recommendation option.

5. Research House – The description of research house. You may select a research house or click Select All to select all of these research houses; this is the default value of research house option.

Once you have entered or selected option values, the system will interpret the information and scan the database, then return a list of research reports that correspond with the option values you have given earlier. If the system does not find any record from the database, the screen will display a message, “No Record Found”.

Sometimes you can notice that some of the records have been grey out and cannot be clicked. This is because the report has been retracted. From the screen shot below, you can notice that the record “0037” – “Dream Gate Corporation Berhad” has been grey out because the report has been retracted.

Screen Shot of File Download Pop-up Window

Follow these steps to search, view, and download a research report

Note:

You may click on Clear to start afresh or clear screen.

1. Select the options. For Stock, you may leave the text box empty to search for all stocks. Or enter a stock code, stock short name or stock name in the text box to retrieve research reports on a specific stock.
2. Click on Search. A list of search results that correspond with the values of the search option will be displayed. By default, the system will display 30 latest reports. The reports are sorted by stock codes and in ascending order. And the latest report is displayed first if the system displays more than one report for the same stock.
3. After getting the search results, click on the stock code or the company name hyperlink from the search results to view or download the content of the research report. A small window, file download pop-up window (see Screen Shot of File Download Pop-up Window) will appear on the screen requesting the user to confirm a choice whether to view or download the file contents. Here are further instructions:
  - Click on Open to view the report content; OR

Bursa Malaysia Berhad	Version: 1.1

Search Research Report

- Click on Save to download the report content. At Save As pop-up window, specify a file name and location for data to be stored and Click on Save. Once the download has completed, click on Open or Open Folder at Download Complete pop-up window to view the report content; OR
- Click on Cancel to exit from the pop-up window.

Concurrently, only 2 files are provided for downloading due to the limitation of Internet Explorer browser.

Note: If the screen does not prompt the file download pop-up window but the file is opened upon a click on the hyperlink, this is because of the settings of the machine. You might have already checked/selected to always open the file when the dialog box prompted for the first time.

Follow these steps to resolve the problem:

- Exit the browser.
- Bring up the Windows Explorer screen by right-click on Start, click on Explorer.
- In the Windows Explorer, choose Tools, click on Folder Options, and select File Types tab.
- In the File Types menu, look for extension TXT and click on it, then click on Advanced button. The screen will prompt Edit File Type menu.
- Select Confirm Open After Download check box. Click on OK to close Edit File Type menu. Click on OK to close File Types menu.
- You may now continue accessing eResearch.

If the above solution does not work, right click on the hyperlink and click on Save As to download the file.
